

About Ray Castellino

Raymond Castellino, DC (retired), RPP, RPE, RCST® draws on four decades of experience as a natural health care practitioner, consultant and teacher. For the past 18 years he has focused on the resolution of prenatal, birth and other early trauma / stress through an approach using birth simulation, pre and peri-natal somatic psychology, somatic experiencing, play therapy, polarity therapy, and craniosacral therapy. Dr Castellino is co-founder and co-director of BEBA. Visit castellinotraining.com for information on trainings, Womb Surround Process Workshops and private sessions with Dr. Castellino.

About Tara Blasco

Tara Maria Blasco holds a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Santa Barbara Graduate Institute, (specializing in prenatal and perinatal psychology) and is a registered craneosacral therapist in Spain and USA. She has worked at the Beba clinic since 2001 when she moved to live to California.

At the moment she co-directs the Beba clinic with Ray Castellino, and works as a facilitator with families at both clinics, Santa Barbara and Ojai.

She co-teaches the 2 1/2 year Castellino Prenatal and Birth Professional training in Spain. She is also a certified and experienced practitioner for the Womb Surround Process Workshops.

About Mary Jackson

Mary Jackson, LM, RN, RCST® became a home birth Midwife in 1975. She has attended over 2000 births in the Santa Barbara, Ventura, and Ojai, California areas. She has incorporated the 2 year Craniosacral training and the 2 year Castellino Prenatal and Birth Training into her midwifery practice.

She is participating in cutting edge research about imprints that occur around the time of conception, pregnancy and birth and how they affect us throughout the rest of our lives and what it takes to heal from challenges in these experiences.

Mary currently co-facilitates the 2-year Castellino Prenatal and Birth Foundation training with Ray Castellino. She also works with him with families and adults through About Connections.